

CONSISE Epidemiology Working Group Meeting
20 January 2016
Institut Pasteur, Paris, France

Agenda

Time	Topic	Speaker/Facilitator
9:00-9:15	Welcome and Introduction of Participants	Maria Van Kerkhove, Institut Pasteur
9:15-9:30	Overview of the day and questions	Maria Van Kerkhove, Institut Pasteur
9:30-9:45	Update from the CONSISE laboratory working group	John Wood, retired, formerly from NIBSC, UK
9:45-10:00	Discussion
10:00-11:00	Development and application of CONSISE Tools Influenza: Household Studies	Ben Cowling, University of Hong Kong
	Influenza: WHO and CONSISE	Kaat Vandemaële, WHO
11:00-11:20	Coffee Break
11:20-12:20	Development and application of CONSISE Tools (continued) MERS-CoV: Experience in Qatar	Elmoubasher Farag, Supreme Council of Health, Qatar
	MERS-CoV: Experience in KSA	Maria Van Kerkhove, Institut Pasteur
12:20-13:00	Discussion (additional needs, modifications required, links with other groups, e.g., ISARIC, WHO networks)	All
13:00-14:00	Lunch
14:00-14:30	Ethical considerations of the use of such tools in epidemics (20 min talk, 10 min discussion)	Abha Saxen, WHO (via webex)
14:30-15:00	Guidance on the reporting from Seroepidemiology studies: ROSES-I Statement	Peter Horby, University of Oxford UK
15:00-15:30	PCR vs. Serology – how to interpret results in seroepidemiologic studies	Marcel A. Müller, University of Bonn, Germany
15:30-15:50	Coffee Break
15:50-16:45	Question Bank Development and Illustration of online platform	Maria Van Kerkhove and Ben Cowling

16:45-17:30	Next steps for CONWISE (epi members of the steering committee, funding sources, further application of tools in affected countries, how better to promote CONWISE)	All
17:30	Thank you and close of meeting
